males. Operators of mines have also learn-ed that mules are better adapted to their work than horses; besides this, the South-ran market must be supplied. The demand is now greater than the supply, and will continue so for many years to come. Recog-nizing these truths, we have determined to become breeders, not only of mules, but of -FINE JACK STOCK,- and have lately purchased, at a long price, one of the Largest and Finest JACKS in the in the State of State of Kentucky. In addi-tion to our own mares and lenners, he will permitted to serve mares and jennets for ers. We will stand him at our LINWOOD FARM, near New Providence, Tenn., at the very low price of TEN DOLLARS for the season. The season will begin March 15, 1834. We also stand a remarkably fine PACING STALLION at ten dollars for the season. HAMBAUGH & GOODLETT. N. B.—We have fine harness horses for sale. H.&G.
